

Description

Charming, fully renovated townhouse for sale in Álora – Ready to move into, including furniture and with a letting licence!

Looking for a cosy home in the heart of beautiful Álora? This super-charming townhouse combines authentic Andalusian charm with modern comfort and is completely ready to move into.

The property has recently been fully renovated and is sold with all the furniture included, so you can move in straight away or start letting it out immediately. What's more, the property already has a valid letting licence, making it a particularly attractive investment for holiday lets.

The layout is practical and cosy:

Spacious and light-filled living room.

Fully fitted kitchen.

Cosy, private patio to enjoy the outdoors....

