

Description

Ground Floor Apartment with an Exceptional 140 m² Private Garden in Torrequebrada

Combining the convenience of apartment living with the outdoor space typically associated with a villa, this corner ground-floor apartment is distinguished by its remarkable 140 m² private garden—a feature rarely found this close to the Mediterranean.

Thoughtfully designed and maintained by its original owner, the garden provides an exceptional outdoor living experience with mature greenery, fruit trees, vegetable plants, a fully equipped outdoor kitchen with BBQ area, a jacuzzi, an elegant electric pergola with a retractable canopy, multiple seating areas and a children's playground. Every space has been carefully planned to embrace the Costa del Sol lifestyle.

The apartment enjoys a slightly elevated position with pleasant sea views from...

