

Ground Floor Apartment in Nueva Andalucía

More info:

You feel the garden from the very first step. As soon as you enter, the living room opens up and leads to the integrated kitchen—perfect for cooking while chatting. At the far end, the glass-walled dining room steals the show: its full folding glass doors open completely and connect the terrace with the lawn and the pool; so, sunny breakfasts, summer naps and long dinners flow indoors and out as one single space.
