

Description

Vista Verde truly lives up to its name: a green and peaceful residential area where everyday life flows without the noise of construction sites. The safe and beautiful surroundings offer exceptional comfort, while the location remains excellent – at the crossroads of Marbella, Malaga, Fuengirola, and Mijas Pueblo. Beaches and town centers are just a few kilometers away, Los Pacos schools can be reached on foot within minutes, and Malaga Airport is approximately a 20-minute drive away.

Public transport stops in both directions (Fuengirola/Mijas) are located just over 500 meters away, with regular bus services operating on both weekdays and holidays.

The area's appeal continues to grow with the opening of a new high-end paddle tennis center right next to the residential complex, while the legendary Lew Hoad Sports Center is only a few kilometers away, offering tennis and padel courts, a gym, group fitness classes, and an excellent restaurant. This makes the...

