

Description

This spacious and bright 2-bedroom penthouse is located in the La Resina area of Estepona, within the golf course. Located in an elegant gated community with 2 swimming pools and beautiful tropical grounds, this apartment offers excellent qualities, tranquillity, sea views, comfort and style. The property really stands out for its amazing uncovered terrace with beautiful panoramic views across the Mediterranean coastline, mountains and golf.

On entering the apartment you are greeted with a modern, fully fitted, semi open plan kitchen, large and bright sitting room that flows straight on to the spacious terrace with dining area and chillout sofa area offering a lot of extra living space outside which is so important to the Marbella way of living, thanks to our wonderful climate. The master bedroom has direct access to the terrace and the second bedroom has beautiful mountain views across the protected area behind the development. The apartment has plenty of natural light, hot and cold A/C throughout, automatic sun awnings on the terrace for much needed shade in the summer, beautiful marble floors and bathroom, and mosquito screens on...

