**Introducing an Exquisite Apartment Complex in Cómputa!****

We are excited to present a stunning new apartment complex featuring four top-quality, fully equipped apartments, complete with a saltwater pool on the expansive roof terrace. This hidden gem, adorned with Oriental influences, is located on a serene street in the vibrant white mountain village of Cómputa, La Axarquía (Málaga province). With charming restaurants and shops just a short walk away, you'll experience the perfect blend of tranquility and local culture.

As you enter through the impressive steel door, you are greeted by a stylish lobby adorned with a soothing water fountain. Before we explore the apartments via the elegant staircase, let's take a moment to appreciate the versatile space that was originally a garage. This area has been transformed into a stunning bodega and party room, featuring a bar, open kitchen, fireplace, and a spacious bathroom. Behind a sleek glass cabinet, you'll find an exquisite selection of wines. The possibilities for this beautifully finished space are endless...
