Description

Spacious Rural Plot with Sea Views in Tamango Hill, Nerja

This generous 10,746 m² plot is located in the Tamango Hill area of Nerja, offering beautiful views and walking distance to the beach — a rare combination in such a sought-after coastal setting. Please note: this is classified as a rural (non-urban) plot, which means residential construction is not permitted under current regulations. The land includes a water share and benefits from proximity to a main electricity supply, allowing for future connection to the grid if required. Ideal for agricultural use or as an investment in land near the coast.
