Description

Totalán is a village located in Malaga's Axarquía, just half an hour from Malaga city center and the airport. The farm has 60,000 m2 with mango and avocado trees and vines of various kinds of grapes. It has two wells -one natural and one drilling-. It has good access. Much of the estate is fenced. It also has a house where you can make three bedrooms, a bathroom, a kitchen and a living room. In the lower part of the farm, next to the river, is the ruin of the old olive oil mill. If you would like a viewing or more information, please contact us.
