Description

Totalán is a village located in Malaga's Axarquía, just half an hour from Malaga city center and the airport. The farm has 60,000 m² with mango and avocado trees and vines of various kinds of grapes. It has two wells -one natural and one drilling-. It has good access. Much of the estate is fenced. It also has a house where you can make three bedrooms, a bathroom, a kitchen and a living room. In the lower part of the farm, next to the river, is the ruin of the old olive oil mill. If you would like a viewing or more information, please contact us.
