

Description

Rustic and charming, this property originates from the historic Cortijo de Benítez in Almogía, in the Campo Cámara area.

The plot, currently in the Fuente Amarga Urbanization, covers 25 ares and borders roads from the main estate to the north and west, and land from the subdivided property to the south and east.

The single-story, self-built family home features a covered porch, two bedrooms, a bathroom, living-dining room, kitchen, storage room, and an additional porch. The total built area is 108.7 m². The remaining land is dedicated to a garden with an 8 x 4 meter swimming pool, creating a private and serene setting.

SITEPLAN

SITEPLAN