

Detached Villa in Arenas

Description

You are looking for a large villa with a heated swimming pool, neatly hidden nearly at the top of a mountain, surrounded by nature with breath-taking views of the valley up to the sea and the village of Arenas? This might just be what you are looking for. At the entry of the property, you find a covered parking space for at least 6 cars and a workshop. From there you step onto a wide porch that surrounds the whole property. In the centre of the house, th...
