

Detached Villa in Sayalonga

Description

A property with charm, soul and tradition, surrounded by nature on all four sides and with panoramic views to the southwest, the valley and the surrounding mountains. It consists of two floors. The current owner built it to his liking in 1996, with top quality materials and noble woods. The estate is accessed through an electric gate and there is space to park at least three vehicles at the entrance. In front of this area, we find several tree-lined paths, for relaxed strolls, an...
