

Description

Sports Complex for Sale in Ronda

Established facility with strong development potential

A private sports complex is offered for sale, located in a privileged natural setting, just a short distance from the town centre of Ronda. The property is fully equipped for sports and leisure activities and benefits from a long-standing trajectory, providing identity, stable operation, and strong local recognition.

The complex stands out for its spacious layout, versatility, and excellent state of maintenance, making it especially appealing to sports operators and investors seeking an asset with future growth potential.

Facilities

The complex features a complete and well-organised infrastructure, including:...

