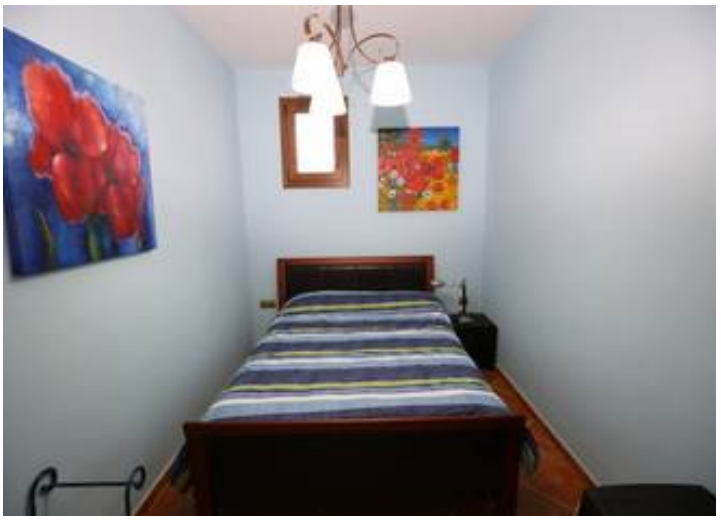
Description


In the picturesque village of Benamargosa, a spacious house with an impressive built area of 472 m2 is available for sale. Its prime location allows easy access on foot to all the amenities the village has to offer, including restaurants, shops, and medical facilities. The ground floor of the house boasts a generous living-dining room, a well-equipped kitchen, and a bathroom. An imposing staircase leads to the first floor, which features four spacious bedrooms and another bathroom. The charm of the house extends to the next level, offering a rooftop terrace with breathtaking panoramic views. This space could even be converted into additional rooms to expand its usage, while the existing terrace invites you to enjoy relaxed outdoor moments. The basement of the house offers further treasures, including a garage for your vehicle and a guest apartment with its own living room, kitchen, two bedrooms, and a bathroom. This not only provides space for visitors but also offers excellent opportunities for rental, whether as a vacation accommodation or a bed and breakfast. The versatile structure of the house allows for customization according to your needs. For instance, the attic could be converted into additional rooms to maximize space utilization. This...
