

Description

Excellent investment opportunity in the Old Town of Estepona.

Urban plot of 192 m<sup>2</sup> currently occupied by three small buildings to be demolished, offering an exceptional opportunity for a new residential or investment development.

Planning regulations allow the construction of up to three floors plus a rooftop solarium terrace, maximizing the development potential of the plot.

Located in one of the most sought-after areas of Estepona's historic center, within walking distance of the beach, restaurants, shops, and all essential services.

A prime location with strong capital appreciation potential, ideal for developers and investors looking to create a unique project in the heart of the city.
