

Description

Nestled within an impressive 13,000 m² estate, this exceptional rustic villa enjoys breathtaking panoramic views across the valley to the Mediterranean Sea, offering a rare blend of historic charm, privacy, and modern comfort.

Dating back to around 1850, this finca is believed to be the original house of Los Reales. The locals called it Casa de la Panzona, (the house of the woman with a fat stomach) because she had 11 children! Lovingly restored and meticulously maintained, it retains an abundance of authentic character while seamlessly incorporating contemporary conveniences.

The entrance opens into a magnificent living room, where exposed wooden beams, a striking feature fireplace, and generous proportions create a warm and inviting atmosphere. From here, the home flows effortlessly into an elegant formal dining room and a fully fitted country-style kitchen. A traditional stable door leads directly onto a spacious terrace that extends the length of the property, providing the perfect setting for al fresco dining, entertaining, or simply...
