

Description

Spectacular detached villa in traditional Andalusian style, with white façades and elegant arches, located in one of the most exclusive areas of Torre Quebrada. The property stands out for its large private pool with slide, surrounded by a sunny stone terrace, ideal for sunbathing and enjoying the outdoors.

On the main floor there is a large covered porch with columns and balustrades, perfect as a chill-out area or summer dining space. On the upper floor, a spacious wrap-around terrace with pergolas offers various corners to relax and enjoy the Costa del Sol climate.

Surrounded by greenery and decorative pots, the villa combines privacy, space and plenty of natural light, making it an ideal option both as a permanent residence and as a luxury holiday home in Benalmádena.

