

Description

Are you looking for an oasis in harmony with nature? A place of peace and relaxation, where time runs a little slower? Yes?! Then we would like to show you this fantastic villa, in the mountains of Torrox. It offers an imposing, grand main house, a separate, small guest house and a pool, as well as 5,569 m² of land, which is predominantly flat and thus offers countless possibilities. The layout of the property makes it possible to use the main house as two independent living units, with separate entrances. This fabulous property is perfect as a multi-family home, B&B or as an investment opportunity for a yoga center, event location, dance school or meditation temple.... An almost completely paved driveway leads you to a concrete parking area, which is partially covered. On this level is the charming guest cottage with its own covered terrace. It is equipped with a cozy, open living/dining area with a bed, a kitchen and a bathroom. The fireplace provides comfortable warmth in the cooler months. A driveway, as well as stairs, lead to the lower level. Another heavy wooden door with an iron horse door knocker grants entry into the spacious, imposing living area with fireplace, of the first part of the house. To the right is a guest toilet. Next to this is a room which i...
