

Description

Set on a sprawling 8,000 m2 private plot, this exceptional property offers endless possibilities for those with vision and ambition. With multiple buildings and the potential to develop up to 13 apartments, this is a rare opportunity to create something truly special in one of Spain's most desirable regions. Currently, two apartments have been fully renovated and are move-in ready, providing a glimpse into the incredible potential of this estate. Whether you envision a charming bed & breakfast, a holiday rental business, long-term rental units, or a bespoke private retreat, this property offers the perfect canvas for your plans. The outdoor spaces are a true highlight: a lush garden adorned with stately palm trees, inviting terraces, and a sparkling pool create the perfect setting for relaxation and entertainment. Additionally, the property features a large parking area, ensuring convenience for guests or residents. Equipped with solar panels, the estate supports sustainable living while offering room for renovations and upgrades to align with your style and needs. The balance between existing infrastructure and untapped potential makes this property ideal for creating a unique project that stands out. Situated in a peaceful and private location, the...

