

Description

Tucked into the hills of La Quinta, one of the Costa del Sol's most established and desirable addresses, this fully renovated duplex offers an immediate sense of calm, privacy, and understated luxury. Set within a secure gated community with CCTV monitoring and four communal swimming pools, the property enjoys a peaceful setting surrounded by greenery, while remaining just a 10-minute drive from Puerto Banús, Marbella's beaches, and some of the area's finest golf courses.

The home has been completely reimagined with meticulous attention to detail, blending refined finishes with a warm contemporary aesthetic. Clean architectural lines, premium materials, and an open staircase create a strong sense of volume and connection between the living spaces. Natural light flows effortlessly throughout, enhancing the open-plan layout and relaxed atmosphere.

The fully equipped kitchen has been designed for both everyday comfort and entertaining, seamlessly connecting to the dining and lounge areas. Across two...
