

Description

Discover the charm of country living at this spectacular country estate, just 15 minutes from Ronda!

Situated in Llano de la Cruz, an area highly sought-after by locals, it is a 5-minute walk from the village of Arriate. You'll enjoy being close to a country restaurant and the amenities Arriate has to offer, without sacrificing the peace and quiet of the countryside.

This property features a single-storey main house offering an open-plan kitchen-living-dining area, two bedrooms and a bathroom, as well as an outdoor bathroom next to the swimming pool.

At the rear, there is access to an attic which is currently used as a storage room.

The jewel in the crown of this property is its stunning swimming pool on the terrace, where you can relax whilst taking in the beautiful views of the Sierra. It also features a storage room with windows and a separate entrance, which could be converted into a guest flat, offering the perfect opportunity to welcome your...

