

Description

I would like to take you to a piece of paradise under the Spanish sun. This unique and successfully run hotel belongs to the municipality of Canillas de Albaida in the lovely region of La Axarquía (Málaga province). The hotel is located on the edge of the National Park in the foothills of the Sierra Tejeda Mountains where you can take beautiful walks. Despite its rural setting, the property is just an hour's drive from Málaga airport. The white mountain village of Canillas de Albaida is less than 5 minutes' drive away, but you can also get there via a lovely walking route of about 20 minutes. There are a number of supermarkets and restaurants/café's with terraces here. The larger village of Cómpeta is a 10-minute drive away and in 35 minutes you can already reach one of the nice beaches on the Costa del Sol.

Hotel

The property's history dates back to 1805 when it functioned as an olive mill. In 2002, the current owners transformed the property into this authentic and very charming hotel equipped with all modern conveniences....
