

Finca - Cortijo in Casarabonela

More info:

Tierrabuela is a reformed farmhouse offering 215 metres of premium quality accommodation accessed by private gated entry set in over 70,000 square metres of fertile agricultural land. Positioned at the entrance to the National Park of the Sierra de las Nieves, the finca boasts a wide variety of trees including mango, avocado, pomegranate, fig and apricot, and also includes a grove of 200 mature olive trees. It benefits from having flat areas of land which would be ideal for a...
