Description

An attractive, rustic-style house with a proven successful rental history, located in a charming and hospitable hamlet near Comares. This beautiful property is located in Los Ventorros, a picturesque village just a few minutes from the mountain town of Comares. This popular holiday home with an excellent rental history offers a unique opportunity for both private use and rental possibilities.

On arrival, there is parking space directly at the house. An imposing wooden front door leads to a covered porch, which in turn gives access to the hallway through double wooden doors. What immediately strikes you upon entering is the beautiful sightline that runs through the entire house, from the front door to the back door leading to the garden. The traditional chequered floor tiles, characteristic of this region, contribute to the authentic atmosphere.

The hallway connects the various rooms and leads to the living/dining room. On either side of the hallway are two charming bedrooms, each with its own bathroom. On the left is a spacious bedroom (5 x 4 m) with built-in wardrobes...
