Description

Incredible Opportunity to Create Your Ideal Country Home with Spectacular Views

Situated in a beautiful countryside location between Riogordo and Comares, this unfinished property offers a rare opportunity to complete a home entirely to your own taste while enjoying truly remarkable panoramic views across the surrounding landscape.

The structure already benefits from the main exterior walls, roof, windows and doors being in place, together with some interior partition walls, providing an excellent starting point for creating a comfortable country retreat or permanent home in an exceptional setting.

The current layout allows space for:
