COMMERCIAL PREMISES WITH POTENTIAL FOR RESIDENTIAL CONVERSION – CENTRAL TORREMOLINOS

A versatile property offering commercial and residential potential

Are you looking for a flexible investment opportunity in Torremolinos? This 96 m² ground-floor property offers a particularly interesting possibility:

approximately 40 m² could potentially be converted into residential use, while the remaining area could continue to be used as commercial premises.

The conversion would require the corresponding horizontal division and change-of-use procedure, subject to technical assessment and applicable planning regulations.

This creates several possibilities: use part of the property as a home for personal use or rental, while retaining the remaining area as a business premises, office o...
