

Description

Boutique hotel located in the heart of Málaga, on a quiet street yet close to all services and amenities. It boasts 590 m<sup>2</sup> of built area and 13 rooms distributed over four floors, including a penthouse with a turret.

Situated in a carefully restored 19th-century building, this hotel combines the charm of classic architecture with modern comforts. It offers a welcoming and authentic atmosphere, where original features such as high ceilings, hydraulic tile floors, spacious common areas, and historical details reflecting the passage of time have been preserved. All of this is integrated with a clean and functional design, free of unnecessary embellishments, prioritizing comfort, natural light, and a tranquil ambiance. Among its common areas, a large chill-out terrace stands out, offering views of Málaga's historic center—ideal for relaxing and enjoying the surroundings.
