

Land in Alhaurín El Grande

140.000 €

10.800m²

Description

Flat plot of agricultural land with electricity, legal well water, a small existing building and water storage tank.

The plot extends to 10,800m² and is completely flat, enjoying beautiful open views across the surrounding countryside towards Alhaurín El Grande and Coín.

Electricity is already connected, and the property benefits from a legally registered well and an existing water storage tank, making it particularly well suited to a variety of agricultural uses.

There is also a small existing building on the land which comprises of 2 rooms, a shower room and a covered porch.

Subject to the relevant planning permissions and licences, the plot may offer the possibility of constructing an agricultural building of up to approximately 100m².
