

Description

Discover this magnificent 107 m² plot located in a prime location in El Gastor. Being a corner plot, it guarantees an exceptional influx of natural light throughout the day, creating a bright and welcoming space for your future home.

This urban land offers extraordinary building flexibility. You can design your project with a garage on the ground floor, followed by two upper floors, perfectly adapting to your needs and dreams. The 107 m² buildable area allows you to make the absolute most of every corner of the plot.

The location is simply spectacular. Situated right across from a beautiful park, you will enjoy lovely views that will charm you from day one. Additionally, your custom project can easily incorporate a parking space, storage room, a terrace, or any other extra features you desire.

Access is quick and convenient via urban roads, placing you right in the heart of...

