Description

Land for Sale in Ronda - Unique Opportunity

Discover a unique opportunity on the market with this expansive 274-hectare plot of land in the municipality of Ronda. This property includes an old, ruined building and a tool shed of approximately 50 m², offering endless possibilities for revitalization and transformation. The property has a permit to construct a building for livestock or agricultural activities, making it an ideal location for new projects.

Located just 300-400 meters from the main road connecting El Burgo with Ronda, this land offers convenient access, although it does not have a direct access road. The area includes approximately 100 hectares on a nearly flat plateau, perfect for livestock farming, horse breeding, or even wine production. Furthermore, it meets the requirements for a small game hunting reserve, adding an extra appeal for nature and hunting enthusiasts.
