

Description

Imagine living on a street full of history — where every corner breathes art, and the sound of laughter and café terraces blends with the sea breeze. This apartment offers exactly that: a charming home right in the historic center of Málaga.

Recently renovated with a modern yet cozy design, it's ready for you to move in and start enjoying life from day one. Natural light pours in through double-glazed windows, creating a calm and welcoming atmosphere in the middle of the vibrant city center.

The kitchen is fully equipped with top-quality appliances — oven, microwave, dishwasher, washer-dryer — everything you need to make life easy. And when it's time to rest, the bedroom awaits with a storage bed and a large built-in wardrobe to keep everything organized.

You'll also find air conditioning, two televisions, and sound systems — perfect for...
