

Description

Magnificent apartment located on the fourth floor of a beautiful building in the very heart of Málaga. Recently renovated, the property enjoys a southeast orientation and offers a modern design, bright spaces, and fantastic views of the city's historic buildings.

The home is distributed into an elegant living-dining room with access to a terrace overlooking Plaza del Siglo and the Cathedral; a modern, independent kitchen; two interior bedrooms and two bathrooms, one of them en suite. Notable features include parquet flooring, centralized hot/cold air conditioning, and double glazing.

Situated in one of Málaga's most sought-after areas, the apartment is just steps from some of the city's most iconic monuments, such as Plaza de la Merced, the Roman Theatre, and the Alcazaba, and only 15 minutes on foot from La Malagueta beach. In addition, the property is surrounded by all kinds of services and offers numerous cultural and leisure options in the vicinity.
