

Description

This exceptional penthouse is a rare find in Nerja, offering a unique combination of location, space and lifestyle. Situated just a short stroll from Burriana Beach, one of Nerja's most sought-after beaches, the property stands out for its privileged position and impressive outdoor living space.

The apartment comprises two bedrooms, a bright living room, a fully fitted kitchen and a bathroom. The true highlight of the property is the spectacular private terrace of approximately 100m², providing ample space for outdoor dining, entertaining guests, relaxing in the sun or simply enjoying the peaceful surroundings. Its size and versatility also make it an attractive option for holiday rentals.

Additional features include central air conditioning throughout the apartment and lift access within the building for added convenience.

Included in the sale is a large private parking space within the same building,...

