

Semi-Detached House in Marbella

Description

Three-bedroom townhouse in a well-established and well-connected part of Marbella. Built in 1988, it offers 110 m² built (89 m² usable) over two floors, with a southeast orientation that brings sunlight through much of the day.

On the main floor, marble flooring leads through to an independent, fitted kitchen. The three bedrooms — one of them en suite — are completed by a full bathroom and a gu...
