
Description

Amazing and one off opportunity, this is a lovely little townhouse tucked away in the heart of the romantic Andalucian Manilva village (2.5Km) from the Sabinillas blue flagged beaches. It is in the corner of one of the lovely little squares under trees. The house has been completely reformed and is in very good condition with new windows, fully fitted kitchen, lots of natural light from all rooms. Upstairs it has a lovely family bathroom with high ceilings and windows, good size walk-in shower and two bedrooms. The living room is cozy and comfortable. Quiet area, close to school, no communal fees. great opportunity for a younger person wanting to start their independence! We can help with all your questions, so would you like to know more or maybe come and visit the property, do not hesitate and send us a message. See you soon!
