

Description

Discover this home in Rincón de la Victoria, it offers uninterrupted sea views, along with stunning views of the town and surrounding mountains. Located on a cul-de-sac, this home combines comfort, privacy, and convenience in one exceptional property.

The property features 3 spacious bedrooms, including a master bedroom benefiting from an en-suite bathroom. A large family bathroom, separate laundry room, garage and storage room, and ideal for both permanent living and holiday escapes.

Outside, the front patio has been thoughtfully designed with fitted storage closets, barbecue area, and awnings, perfect for enjoying the Mediterranean lifestyle all year round.

Set just 700 metres from the beach, the location is hard to beat. The dead-end street also offers easy additional parking right outside the house.

A fantastic opportunity to own a home with unbeatable views and outstanding value for the area. Properties like this rarely stay on the market for long, early viewing is highly recommended.

