

Description

We present this beautiful home located in the picturesque municipality of Serrato, in the heart of the Serranía de Ronda. With only 10 years since construction, the house is in perfect condition, conveying from the very entrance the quality and care with which it was built.

Upon entering, an elegant vestibule leads to a spacious foyer that distributes the different areas. On the ground floor you'll find a bright living room with an open-plan kitchen—ideal for family life—with direct access to a large patio, perfect for unforgettable evenings with friends and family. This floor also includes a bedroom, a full bathroom, and direct access to the garage.

The upper floor houses three generous double bedrooms and a magnificent primary bedroom with walk-in wardrobe and en-suite bathroom, designed for maximum comfort.

A spacious, comfortable and charming home, ready to move into, set in a...

